

El Día de los Niños Festival

Date:

March 30, 2025

11:00 am — 3:00 pm

Location:

Glass Studio

Crowd under tent.

As part of the Grand Opening Celebration of the Perry Glass Studio, the Chrysler Museum is hosting an early El Día de los Niños (Children's Day) Festival. This block party will feature live performances by and for children, glass-making demonstrations and workshops, an art carnival, and large-scale printmaking inspired by the Oaxaca Central: Contemporary Mexican Printmaking.

Free, registration not required.

Central to any Oaxacan journey is the Pasaporte Grafico Oaxaca, an exciting activity that encourages visits to local print workshops. In the same spirit, the Chrysler Museum of Art presents the Oaxaca Central Passport! This passport encourages you to dive deeper into local creative experiences through exhibition related events and community partnerships.

How it works:

Grab a passport.

When you attend a listed event or visit a listed partner, ask for a passport stamp.

After collecting four or more of the nine stamps, return to the Chrysler Museum and show your passport to the Welcome Desk.

Choose from the following rewards:

A free ticket to the April 25 Ignite: Ink (18+), or

A limited edition print made in the exhibition workshop, exclusively for passport participants.
